"A... chief [executive] strictly limited, the right of war vested in the legislative body, a rigid economy of the public contributions and absolute interdiction of all useless expenses will go far towards keeping the government honest and unoppressive." --Thomas Jefferson to Lafayette, 1823.

I like the dreams of the future better than the history of the past. -- Thomas Jefferson

July, 2007

Not a lot to say this time. I set an earlier deadline hoping to have a fast turn around but that obviously didn't work. Over half the orders didn't arrive on time, and when I did finally track them down, I'm busier than ever myself. Summer is a much busier time for me than during the school year. Then the kids leave in the morning and come back in the afternoon. Now they've got swimming lessons, nature camp, etc. to go to and it's a constant shuffle to get them places or to watch them for a bit while my wife is doing the shuffling. Since I'm the only one in my office I can be flexible and do this, but then I've got work other odd hours to keep up with things. Anyway, I hope all are enjoying your summer so far.

Two big things for us every summer. One is of course that the beach is open. We have a small lake in town with a very nice beach for residents only. The kids take swimming lessons there and of course they always want to be there. The second is heading out on the water. Previously that has been in a 16ft canoe, but as the kids are getting older and larger, putting all 6 of us in one canoe is getting harder. This winter we bought a couple of tandem kayaks, and we took them out for the first time recently. Fewer arguments about where to go with only 3 in each boat, but definitely a wetter trip!

We've got an Industrial Waste game start. Not getting a lot of interest in many of the other games, although we've been close for a while on Perestroika Dip. Anyone interested in something, let me know!

Welcome to Tinamou #67, produced by Dave Partridge, 15 Woodland Drive, Brookline NH, 03033 (email: rebhuhn@rocketmail.com). Tinamou now appears on the web in conjunction with TAP. The web page has everything you'll find here including maps. Go to Jim's index page <http://www.diplom.org/DipPouch/Postal/Zines/TAP> and check it out, your comments and suggestions are welcome!

Deadline for all games: Mon, August 20, 2007

Gunboat with press: Five signed up so far.

Perestroika Diplomacy: Add an economic twist to the classic game. Centers generate revenue, armies and fleets must be maintained, and treasuries can be sacked! Rules are available on request.

NEED JUST ONE MORE!

Signed up: Art Schleinkofer, Harold Reynolds, Karl Schmit, Graham Wilson, Sean O'Donnell, Larry Cronin

Standard Diplomacy:

Game Opening: Standard Diplomacy

Signed up: Sean O'Donnell, Brendan Whyte

Just the results please: Don't really know what to call this one as I just came up with it. Perhaps it's been tried before. The twist for this variant is that each season only the ending unit positions are published, not the orders. You'll know who went where, but not who helped whom, or what may have been tried unsuccessfully.

Signed up: Doug Kent, Graham Wilson, Art Schleinkofer

Industrial Waste:

A new game for 3-4 players. Manager your factory and build your products, but beware, increased production means more waste, and if you aren't careful you'll find that working in a sludge pit affects your productivity and the bottom line.

Game Start: Exxon Valdez: Eric Brosius, Graham Wilson, Brad Martin, Richard Weiss

Railway Rivals: Anyone have a favorite map they want?

Outpost: Sign up for the next game to start when the current one finishes

Signed up: Eric Brosius, Chris Hassler, Andy York

Snowball fighting: Current game is over. Anyone interested in another go? 4 signed up so far, Need a few more.

Golden Strider: It is to running what Breaking Away is to bike riding. See Tom's szine off-the-shelf at <http://www.olympus.net/personal/thowell/o-t-s/index.html> for some games in progress.

Signed up: Tom Howell, Dennis Menear

Settlers of Catan: 4 Players only, will be run just like a FTF game with fast turn around.

Signed up: Michael Scott

Sopwith: (Next game once Snoopy finishes.)

Brendan Whyte

Die Rolls for Round 3: 2, 6, 3

Breaking Away: Keep Pedalin' Orville:

And a fractured bunch they are as the highest replacement card is a seven. Calhoun lunges to the front, Pitino, perhaps sensing that the Otters woodn't (sick) let him get away with a breakaway decide to draft along. MLT wins the sprint, but that may be all for them. The Phoenician Alphabeticists gain more than they spent, but we're really reaching for compliments here. Can the Big East front runners hold on to their position in the front, and will it be enough?

WOOL to Mr. Me-Do-Math-For-Money: Have you figured out who gets the money for this one, yet? Since Jim couldn't keep up the coordination thing, there won't be a tie for first place. Too bad. This turn we should be able to figure out who all the also-rans will be.

Tom to Karl: Sure. Any time I can help. Might be able to do more if you ask before the turn instead of after...

Tom to Jim: That enough fragmentation for you? Still looks like a bit of a crowd there at the back. Don't be too surprised if there's some bunching up after the second sprint.

GM – Tom: Does 5 riders count as a bunch?

Tom to Jim II: Not sure exactly where all the second sprint points are going. Looks pretty even to me at this point. I guess it'll depend a lot on who decides to try to grab some little points instead of hoping for a decent card.

Lumber to Louie: I'm overwhelmed. Such Illustrious companions!

Lumber to Brick: We got the road, man! Use it!

MIKE READS ROADSIDE SIGNS: "Cowboy Shoot, Sunday, Tioga County Sportsmen's Association." Hmmm. Is that analogous to their "Turkey Shoot"?

GEOFF BODINE: Yeah, I could have scored third at the sprint line by charging hard last time, but since that race-truck wreck at Daytona shook my brain loose, I mostly just stay in line behind my teammates.

INTERLUDE: Westley dismounts and bows to the crowd after winning the sprint while the peleton passes him by.

Westley -> Field: Watch my superiority dance! dances Sure it'll take me at least 10 turns to reach the finish line, but I'll have my moment in the sun. Attica! Attica!

Max -> Westley: I think you're a bit confused about your genre.

Max -> Stewart: you didn't waste your 15, did you? If not, Buttercup and Inigo thank you. Hmm...maybe I should actually negotiate in this game?

old crone - field: Oh no! Pitino is going to win! Boo! BOOOO!

From Nielsen's new Consumer Insight online magazine:

As a rule of thumb, female college viewers have the greatest impact on primetime dramas with strong female characters. Conversely, male college viewers make the biggest difference in football and animation programming.

Persephone, Standard Diplomacy

Italy and England work together but no advances against Germany. England does retake the North Sea as Germany wins the three way clash for Norway. Of course this is a spring turn so it's the next one that will be interesting! Austria begs forgiveness from Turkey as he slides into Rum. Did we mention this is only a spring turn? Looks like things are getting somewhat interesting as we've started the midgame alliance shifting.

All's quiet on the southern front. England and France engage in a ritual dance while Russia redeploys to defend against an Austria threat which attempts to fade away, though in the best ironic fashion, the pullback is blocked by Russia's moves.

Pioneers: Settlers of Catan (6 player expansion)

About Development cards. The rules state that a Development card can not be used on the turn it is purchased. The expansion rules allow the purchase of Development Cards during the Special Build Phase. This would potentially allow a player to purchase a card just prior to his turn and then use it immediately, which can be interpreted as flying in the face of the intentional delay built into the rules. I've done some searching on the web but not found a consensus. One group uses the middle ground that there have to be at least 2 player turns between purchase and use, so, for example, if Al purchased a card during the expansion phase of Brendan or David he could not use it in the following turn, but would have to wait an additional turn. If he purchased it during the expansion phase after Paraic's, Mike's or Brad's turn he could use it immediately. At the moment I'm not going to add any new rules, so you can not play a Development Card on the turn you bought it, but you can play it the next time you have a turn. I'd welcome anyone thoughts on the matter though (whether you're playing in the game or not!).

Turn 1

Player	Roll	Resources	Actions
Al	9	Al receives 1 Brick and 1 Grain, Paraic 1 Brick, Brad 1 Brick, Brendan 1 Brick and David 1 Grain	Al builds a road from B8-B7. During the special build phase David builds a road from D3-E3.
